

CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

Continental Bead Suppliers Inc. · 3035 E. Post Rd, Las Vegas, NV 89120

Version dated September 2026

This Consignment Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into as of _____ (the “Effective Date”), by and between Continental Bead Suppliers Inc., located at 3035 E. Post Rd, Las Vegas, NV 89120 (the “Consignee”), and

Name: _____

Business Name (if any): _____

Address: _____

Email / Phone: _____

(the “Consignor”). Consignee and Consignor are referred to individually as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties.”

1. Consigned Merchandise; Acceptance by Delivery

Consignor delivers to Consignee the beads, jewelry-making supplies, findings, components, finished jewelry, and related inventory described in the attached Exhibit A (the “Merchandise”). Additional inventory may be added from time to time by written or emailed amendment acknowledged by both Parties, and each such addition shall be governed by the terms of this Agreement.

Acceptance by Delivery. Shipping or delivering Merchandise to Consignee constitutes Consignor's full acceptance of, and agreement to be bound by, this Agreement and all of its terms, whether or not Consignor has signed this Agreement. The version of this Agreement most recently provided to Consignor or published by Consignee (including in Consignee's online consignor portal) as of the date of each delivery governs that delivery. Consignor's continued consignment of Merchandise after notice of any amendment constitutes acceptance of the amendment.

Consignor represents and warrants that Consignor is the lawful owner of the Merchandise, that the Merchandise is free of all liens, security interests, and encumbrances, and that Consignor has full right and authority to consign the Merchandise to Consignee for resale.

2. Inbound Shipping, Receipt, and Inventory Verification

Consignor is solely responsible for all costs of shipping, packing, freight, insurance, and handling required to deliver the Merchandise to Consignee's premises. Consignee will not accept freight-collect, COD, or similar shipments and may refuse any such delivery at Consignor's expense. Consignor shall provide a written or itemized inventory list (Exhibit A) describing the Merchandise being shipped, along with Consignor's proposed sale price for each item or lot. Consignor's proposed prices are recommendations only and are subject to acceptance, modification, or markdown by Consignee as set forth in Section 5.

Upon receipt, Consignee will inspect, count, and catalog the Merchandise within a commercially reasonable period. Consignee's inventory count, descriptions, and condition assessments are final and binding on the Parties.

Any discrepancy between Consignor's list and Consignee's count shall be resolved in favor of Consignee's count. Consignor waives any claim against Consignee for items allegedly shipped but not received, lost in transit, or damaged in transit, except to the extent recoverable from the freight carrier directly (which Consignor may pursue at Consignor's own expense).

3. Non-Commingling and Segregated Tracking

Consignee will track each Consignor's Merchandise separately and will not commingle Consignor's Merchandise with inventory belonging to Consignee or to other consignors for purposes of revenue accounting. Each item or lot will be assigned identifiers in Consignee's inventory system tying that item back to Consignor so that sales can be attributed and accounted for under Section 6.

4. Title and Risk of Loss

Title to the Merchandise remains with Consignor until the Merchandise is sold to an end customer, at which point title passes directly from Consignor to the end customer. Consignee acts solely as a sales agent for the Merchandise and acquires no ownership interest in any unsold Merchandise, except as expressly provided in Sections 8 (Rejected Merchandise), 10 (Term and Termination), and 16 (Death or Incapacity of Consignor). Consignor bears the risk of loss for damage, theft, fire, flood, or other casualty while the Merchandise is in Consignee's possession, except to the extent any such loss is caused by Consignee's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Consignee is not required to maintain insurance on the Merchandise, and Consignor is encouraged to maintain its own insurance coverage if desired.

5. Pricing, Markdowns, Listing, and Sales Channels

Consignor may propose an initial sale price for each item or lot of Merchandise on Exhibit A. Consignee may accept Consignor's proposed price, propose an alternative price (which Consignor may accept or withdraw the item), or, where Consignor has not provided a proposed price, set the initial price in Consignee's discretion based on Consignee's research (including but not limited to comparable Google search results and completed eBay listings). Once an item is listed for sale, Consignor's prior approval is not required for any subsequent price change made under the markdown schedule below or otherwise pursuant to this Section.

Automatic Markdown Schedule. If an item has not sold within the following time periods measured from the date it is first listed for sale by Consignee, Consignee may, without further notice or consent, reduce the listed price as follows: (a) 10% markdown after six (6) months unsold; (b) 25% cumulative markdown after twelve (12) months unsold; and (c) additional markdowns at Consignee's sole discretion thereafter, including clearance pricing, bundling, and promotional pricing, as Consignee determines necessary to sell the item.

Sales Channels. Consignee has full and sole discretion over where, how, and through which channels the Merchandise is offered and sold, and over how it is photographed, described, listed, marketed, advertised, and packaged. Channels may include, without limitation, Consignee's retail showroom, Consignee's e-commerce store, online marketplaces, wholesale channels, social-media platforms, in-person events, and any other channel now existing or later adopted by Consignee. No provision of this Agreement obligates Consignee to use, or to refrain from using, any particular channel.

Consignor acknowledges that listing, photographing, cataloging, and selling consigned inventory is labor-intensive and that it may take Consignee several months, and in some cases up to one year or longer, to list all Merchandise for sale. Consignor agrees that no timeline or expectation is created regarding when any particular item will be listed or sold.

6. Revenue Split and Compensation

For each unit of Merchandise sold, the Parties shall calculate “Net Proceeds” as follows: Net Proceeds = Gross Sale Price minus Selling Costs.

“Gross Sale Price” means the price paid by the end customer for the item itself, excluding any amounts the customer pays for shipping and excluding sales taxes collected. Shipping amounts paid by customers are collected and retained by Consignee, are not part of Gross Sale Price, and shipping and fulfillment costs are not deducted as Selling Costs. Shipping does not affect the revenue split in either direction.

“Selling Costs” means the per-sale selling costs determined under Consignee's standardized fee schedule then in effect for the channel on which the item sold. The standardized fee schedule is set by Consignee to reasonably approximate the third-party and transaction costs attributable to sales on each channel — including payment processing fees, marketplace and platform commissions, mandatory per-sale advertising fees, packaging and transaction materials, and chargebacks, reversals, refunds, and returns attributable to a sale. Consignee may update the standardized fee schedule from time to time to reflect changes in underlying costs; the schedule in effect on the date of each sale applies to that sale. The current standardized fee schedule is available to Consignor upon written request. Selling Costs do not include Consignee's general operating expenses, rent, labor, photography, marketing, or overhead.

After Selling Costs are subtracted, Net Proceeds shall be divided as follows: (a) sixty percent (60%) to Consignee as its consignment commission; and (b) forty percent (40%) to Consignor as Consignor's share of Net Proceeds. Consignor acknowledges and agrees that the 40% share is calculated on Net Proceeds (after Selling Costs), not on Gross Sale Price.

7. Reporting and Payment

Consignee shall provide Consignor with a monthly sales statement covering all Merchandise sold during the prior calendar month. Each statement shall identify each item of Merchandise sold during the reporting period and the net amount credited to Consignor for each item, along with any refunds, charges, adjustments, prior balance carried forward, and the resulting payment due to Consignor. Additional detail regarding the calculation of any line, including the applicable standardized fee schedule, is available to Consignor upon written request. Consignee may also provide Consignor with access to an online consignor portal showing Consignor's sales, payments, and balance.

Consignee shall remit Consignor's share on the first (1st) business day of each month for sales completed during the prior calendar month. Payment shall be made via Zelle to the email address or mobile number designated by Consignor below. If Zelle is unavailable to Consignor or if the payment amount exceeds Consignee's available Zelle transfer limits, the Parties may agree in writing on an alternative payment method (such as ACH or check).

Consignor's Zelle Contact (email or mobile): _____

W-9 Requirement. Prior to receiving any payment under this Agreement, Consignor shall deliver to Consignee a completed and signed IRS Form W-9 (or Form W-8, if applicable). Consignee will withhold all payments until a valid Form W-9 is received. Consignee may issue an IRS Form 1099-NEC or other applicable tax form to Consignor as required by law. Consignor is solely responsible for reporting and paying any income, self-employment, or other taxes owed on amounts received under this Agreement.

Refunds, Chargebacks, and Negative Balances. Returns, refunds, and chargebacks occurring after a payment has been made will be reconciled against Consignor's account in the month in which they occur. If reconciliations cause Consignor's account balance to become negative, the negative balance simply carries forward indefinitely and is offset against Consignor's future sales. Consignor is not required to repay any amount to Consignee on account of a negative balance; no payment is due to Consignor until the balance is positive again.

8. Inspection, Acceptance, and Rejection of Merchandise

Consignee shall have a reasonable period after receipt to inspect the Merchandise. Consignee reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to reject any items it determines to be damaged, contaminated, hazardous, mislabeled, counterfeit, infringing on intellectual property rights, unsalable, not commercially viable for Consignee's sales channels, or otherwise unsuitable for resale. With respect to rejected Merchandise, Consignor may elect, within fifteen (15) days of Consignee's written notice of rejection, to either: (a) arrange and pay for the return shipment of rejected items at Consignor's sole expense (including providing a prepaid shipping label or remitting funds sufficient to cover shipping); or (b) authorize Consignee to donate the rejected items to a charity or organization of Consignee's choosing. If Consignor fails to respond within fifteen (15) days, or fails to arrange return shipping within thirty (30) days, the rejected items shall be deemed abandoned and may be donated or otherwise disposed of by Consignee without further obligation or accounting to Consignor.

9. Exclusivity

During the term of this Agreement and while any Merchandise remains in Consignee's possession, Consignor shall not, directly or indirectly, list, market, advertise, sell, or offer to sell the consigned Merchandise (or any portion of it) through any other channel, marketplace, retailer, wholesaler, auction house, online platform, social media listing, classified listing, or private sale. Consignor agrees that the Merchandise consigned under this Agreement is offered to Consignee on an exclusive basis. If Consignor breaches this exclusivity, Consignee may, in addition to any other remedy, immediately terminate this Agreement, retain any Merchandise then in its possession until accounting is settled, and offset any losses, lost commissions, or duplicative listing costs against amounts otherwise payable to Consignor.

10. Term and Termination

This Agreement begins on the Effective Date (or the date of Consignor's first delivery of Merchandise, if earlier) and continues until terminated by either Party. Either Party may terminate this Agreement for convenience upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the other Party. Upon termination, Consignor may request return of any unsold Merchandise. Consignor is solely responsible for all costs of return shipping, packing, and handling, and must arrange pickup or provide a prepaid shipping label within thirty (30) days of termination. Any Merchandise not retrieved within ninety (90) days following termination shall be deemed abandoned, and Consignee may, at its sole discretion, retain, sell, liquidate, or otherwise dispose of such Merchandise without further obligation or accounting to Consignor. Amounts already paid through the most recent monthly settlement under Section 7 are not refundable.

11. Storage, Location, and Space Fees

Consignee will store the Merchandise at its premises located at 3035 E. Post Rd, Las Vegas, NV 89120, or at such other premises as Consignee may relocate to from time to time. Consignee will transport the Merchandise to any new premises along with its own inventory in the event of a relocation, at Consignee's expense.

Consignee does not currently charge storage, holding, or display fees. However, Consignee reserves the right, at any time and in its sole discretion, to begin charging Consignor a recurring fee for showroom display space, storage, or warehousing of the Merchandise if Consignee deems it necessary (including due to increases in Consignee's cost of housing the Merchandise). Any such fee will take effect no sooner than thirty (30) days after written or emailed notice to Consignor stating the amount, will be itemized on Consignor's monthly statement, and will be deducted from amounts otherwise payable to Consignor (or carried against Consignor's account balance). Upon receiving notice of such a fee, Consignor may terminate this Agreement under Section 10 and retrieve the Merchandise before the fee takes effect.

12. Independent Contractors

The Parties are independent contractors. Nothing in this Agreement creates a partnership, joint venture, employment, agency (other than the limited sales agency described herein), or fiduciary relationship between the Parties. Neither Party may bind the other to any obligation without prior written consent.

13. Consignor Representations and Warranties

Consignor represents and warrants that: (a) Consignor has good and marketable title to all Merchandise consigned; (b) the Merchandise is free of all liens, encumbrances, and third-party claims; (c) the Merchandise does not infringe upon any patent, trademark, copyright, trade dress, or other intellectual property right of any third party; (d) the Merchandise complies with all applicable laws and product safety regulations; (e) Consignor has the full legal right and authority to enter into this Agreement; and (f) the Merchandise is not subject to any concurrent listing, consignment, or sale through any other channel in violation of Section 9 (Exclusivity).

14. Indemnification

Consignor shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Consignee, its officers, employees, and agents from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of or related to: (a) any breach by Consignor of this Agreement or the representations and warranties herein; (b) any claim that the Merchandise infringes a third party's intellectual property rights; (c) any defect in the Merchandise; or (d) Consignor's failure to comply with applicable law.

15. Limitation of Liability

In no event shall Consignee be liable to Consignor for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, exemplary, or punitive damages, including lost profits, arising out of or related to this Agreement, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. Consignee's aggregate liability under this Agreement shall not exceed the amounts paid or payable to Consignor during the six (6) months preceding the event giving rise to the claim.

16. Death or Incapacity of Consignor

In the event of Consignor's death or legal incapacity, Consignor's executor, administrator, personal representative, legal guardian, or other duly authorized representative (the "Representative") must contact Consignee in writing within six (6) months of the date of death or incapacity to (i) provide reasonable documentation of authority to act on behalf of Consignor or Consignor's estate (such as letters testamentary, letters of administration, or equivalent), and (ii) designate the person or entity to whom continuing payments under this Agreement shall be made (the "Successor Payee").

If a Representative does not contact Consignee within six (6) months of Consignor's death or incapacity, or if no Representative can be identified, then all unsold Merchandise then held by Consignee shall, automatically and without further action, become the sole property of Consignee, free and clear of any claim by Consignor's estate, heirs, beneficiaries, or assigns. Consignee shall have no obligation to make any further payment to Consignor, Consignor's estate, or any other party with respect to such Merchandise, and Consignee shall have no obligation to locate, notify, or investigate the existence of any Representative. Consignor acknowledges that this provision is a material term of this Agreement and is a condition of Consignee's willingness to accept and warehouse the Merchandise on a long-term basis. Consignor is encouraged to provide a copy of this Agreement to Consignor's executor, attorney, or family members so that they are aware of the six-month notification window.

Optional — Designated Contact in the Event of Death or Incapacity:

Name: _____

Relationship: _____

Email / Phone: _____

(This designation is for Consignee's reference only and does not bind Consignee. The six-month notification requirement above still applies.)

17. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada, without regard to its conflict-of-law principles. The Parties agree to attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute through informal negotiation before resorting to formal proceedings. Any unresolved dispute shall be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Clark County, Nevada, and the Parties consent to the personal jurisdiction of such courts.

18. Entire Agreement; Amendments

This Agreement, together with any attached exhibits, constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements, representations, and understandings, whether written or oral. Except as expressly provided in Sections 6 (updates to the standardized fee schedule) and 11 (space fees on notice), this Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument signed or acknowledged in writing (including by email) by both Parties. Email confirmations from the Parties' authorized representatives shall be deemed sufficient written acknowledgment for purposes of adding inventory to Exhibit A under Section 1. Consignor's continued consignment of Merchandise after notice of an amendment constitutes acceptance of that amendment as provided in Section 1.

19. Miscellaneous

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. The failure of either Party to enforce any right under this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of that right. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, including by electronic signature, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument, and may also be accepted by conduct as provided in Section 1 (Acceptance by Delivery).

Signatures

The Parties, intending to be legally bound, execute this Agreement as of the Effective Date written above. Signature is not required for this Agreement to be effective: delivery of Merchandise to Consignee constitutes acceptance under Section 1.

CONSIGNEE — Continental Bead Suppliers Inc.

Signature: _____

Printed Name: _____

Title: _____

Date: _____

CONSIGNOR

Signature: _____

Printed Name: _____

Business Name (if any): _____

Date: _____

EXHIBIT A — INVENTORY SCHEDULE

This Exhibit A lists the Merchandise consigned by Consignor to Consignee under the Consignment Agreement dated above. Additional inventory may be added by written or emailed amendment between the Parties. Consignor's proposed prices below are recommendations and are subject to Consignee's acceptance, modification, or markdown as set forth in Section 5 of the Agreement. Consignee's count and condition assessment upon receipt are final per Section 2.

Consignor: _____ Date of Delivery: _____

#	Description of Item(s)	Qty	Proposed Price	Notes / Condition
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18

(Attach additional pages or an itemized inventory list if the consignment exceeds the rows shown above.)

Acknowledged and Agreed:

Consignor Signature: _____ Date: _____

Consignee Signature: _____ Date: _____